Professor Information	Rossana Caridà Department of Law, Economics and Sociology e-mail : rosca@unicz.it Student Reception: on days of lessons, before and after the same. In the remaining period, according to communication available on the professor's personal website page.
Course description	The course is divided into lectures of frontal teaching, for a total of 4-6 hours per week, divided into three days; integrative teaching activities. The following program will be addressed.
Course aims and expected learning outcomes	The course aims to illustrate the rules of operation of the Italian regional system, from its constitutional foundation, up to the revisions that have affected it. The regions will be studied in the context of the two major currents of institutional transformation: the process of strengthening territorial autonomy; the federative process at European level. At the end of the course, the student should know the configuration of the institutions according to the program below. Knowledge and understanding: the student must know and analyze the issues related to regional law and to local authorities. Applied knowledge and understanding: the student will have to achieve a thorough knowledge of the regional bodies and the mechanisms of their functioning, both from the political and administrative point of view. Autonomy of judgment: the student will have to acquire an adequate understanding of the repercussions of regional policies, in order to identify the most suitable solutions to the problems deriving from the management and organization of the regional authority, including in relation to smaller local authorities. Communication skills: the student must be able to intervene in a debate in plenary, supporting their arguments. Ability to learn: the student must be able to find and interpret the sources, apply them in concrete relation to the system of functioning of local and regional authorities.

Program (contents, methods of execution) Possible distinction between programs of attending and non-attending students	The formation and legal nature of the regions; the organization of the region (the regional council, the president of the region, the regional government); the links between the state and the regions; the functions of the region (legislative, administrative); financial autonomy, controls.
Estimate of the time commitment required for individual study	Without prejudice to the University didactic regulations and the subjectivity of the study methods of each student, it is estimated, by default, a study commitment of 150 hours.
Teaching methods used	Lessons of frontal teaching, in-depth exercises, seminars, also held by external teachers.
Learning resources (suggested textbooks, any further readings recommended for further study, other teaching material)	Testo consigliato: T. Martines - A. Ruggeri - C. Salazar - A. Morelli, Lineamenti di diritto regionale , ult. edizione. The professor reserves the right to indicate alternative texts and in-depth readings during the course. The additional teaching material is distributed in the classroom directly by professor. The study must be constantly accompanied by consultation and analysis of the Constitution and the fundamental laws indicated by professor.
Support activities	Further paths of deepening can be agreed with the students.
Attendance modes	Attendance of the course is optional.
Evaluation methods	Oral examination. For attending students there is an exemption test on the part of program addressed in the first part of the course. The final examination is oral. In order to pass the exam, the student must demonstrate to know sufficiently the program in its entirety and to be able to express it in a satisfactory language on a syntactic and technical level. The total or partial lack of these basic elements will entail the negative evaluation of the test and therefore the student's unsuitability to pass the exam. <table border="1" data-bbox="432 1541 1374 2152"> <thead> <tr> <th data-bbox="432 1541 560 1644">Vote</th> <th data-bbox="560 1541 815 1644">Knowledge and understanding of the subject</th> <th data-bbox="815 1541 1094 1644">Skills of analysis and synthesis</th> <th data-bbox="1094 1541 1374 1644">Use of references</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td data-bbox="432 1644 560 1816">Unsuitable</td> <td data-bbox="560 1644 815 1816">Important deficiencies.
